

Please throw out the proposal to have radio stations record their programming 24/7. Why are you looking for ways to punish the entire industry for the programming blunders of a handful of radio stations that have since changed their programming policies. This process is totally unnecessary and would be just one more thing that would take up valuable time and money from the majority of small market radio stations who need every dollar to program and serve their local communities.

Thank You for your consideration.

Thomas P Cooper
WGRQ WGRX Radio